

Science in the Service of Wetland Conservation: Advances, Retreats, Opportunities

Dr. Paul Keddy

10:00 a.m. Thursday 2 February 2012

Paul Keddy has been a professor of ecology at three universities over 35 years, and has published over 100 papers on wetlands and ecology. He has authored six books including: Wetland Ecology: Principles and Conservation. (www.drpaulkeddy.com)

Date: 2 February 2012, World Wetlands Day

Event: Ontario Wetlands Conference: The History and Future of our Wetlands

Organizers: Ontario Nature, www.ontarionature.org

Keynote Speakers: Ron Reid 9:15, Dr. Paul Keddy 10:00

Location: Black Creek Pioneer Village, 1000 Murray Ross Parkway, Toronto

Cost: $50/person, $25 for students (lunch included, students must show ID)

More information: www.ontarionature.org/wetlands